

“Chiming of the Hour”

The Call to Worship

Impressions of God, O you saints, and give thanks to God's holy name!
 We wait for you, O God, for you have redeemed us to life!
 We may cry through the night, for you do come with the morning,
 You hear us, O God, and you are gracious in our distress.
 The Lord's morning has come!
 Our souls cannot be silent! O God, our Savior, we give thanks to you forever!

The Opening Prayer

O God, our Guide and Guardian, you have led us apart from the busy world into the quiet of your house. Grant us grace to worship you in Spirit and in truth, in the comfort of our souls and the upbuilding of every good purpose and holy desire. Enable us to do more perfectly the work to which you have called us, that we may not lose the coming of night, when we shall resign into your hands the tasks which you have committed to us.

So, may we worship you not with our lips at this hour, but in word and deed all the days of our lives, through Jesus Christ our Savior. Amen.

The Message "Who's My Daughter?"

The Recounting of God's Ethics and Our Offerings

The Response "To the Lord, Praise Ever Thanks!" (2c)
 In the Lord, it is ever thanks, in the Lord we appear.
 Look to God, do not be afraid, lift up your voice, for the Lord is near,
 Lift up your voice, for the Lord is near.

"The Doxology" (LHM 10)

"The Prayer of Dedication: Almighty God, giver of every good and perfect gift, lead us to realize to you all that we have and all that we are. That we may praise you, not with our lips only, but with our whole hearts, turning the duties, the sorrows, and the joys of other days into a living sacrifice to you, through our Savior Jesus Christ. Amen.
