

“Chiming of the Hour”

“The Call to Worship”

The words remind and promise, stir to anger and abounding in revealed love.

We draw not death with us according to our sins, nor requite us according to our iniquities.

(What shall I render to the Lord for all his bounty to me?)

(I will bring the cup of salvation and call on the name of the Lord.)

Tunes “Take My Life and Let It Be” UMH 288

The Opening Prayer

O God, whose will is justice for the poor and grace for the afflicted, let your servant’s urgent voice please our heavenly Father and announce the dawn of your Kingdom. Before the altar of the One who baptizes with the fire of the Holy Spirit, let our complacency give way to contrition, aggression to justice, and conflict to acceptance of one another in Christ. We ask this through the One whose coming is certain, whose day draws near: your Son our Lord Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, our God, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Response

*Let all things be done in love,
And working for in faithfulness.*

Give thanks all the time!

*Prayer, praise the Father, praise the Son
And praise the Spirit, Three in One.*

Give thanks all the time! All the time!

“The Doxology” (UMH 81)

“The Prayer of Dedication: Almighty and most merciful God, from you comes every good and perfect gift. We give you praise and thanks for all your mercies. Your goodness has increased, your bounty has expanded as your discipline has chastened us, your patience has borne with us, your love has sustained us. Give us a heart to love and serve you and enable us to show our thankfulness for all your goodness and mercy by giving up ourselves to your service, and cheerfully surrendering in all things to your blessed will, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.”
